Heaven on Earth

We invite people to our home and we place food and drink before them and we invite them to eat and drink. Today, Jesus invites us to his table and he puts himself before us as food and drink and invites us to eat and drink.

In language that is very daring, Jesus declares himself to be our food and drink, the one who can satisfy our deepest hungers and thirst for life. 'Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life.' We tend to think of 'Eternal Life' as a life that only begins after death. Yet, it is clear from the gospel that by 'eternal life' Jesus does not just mean a life that begins after this earthly life ends. He understands eternal life as a life that we can begin to experience in the midst of this earthly life.

Just as during his earthly life Jesus drew life from God, so during our earthly lives we can draw spiritual life from Jesus through our communion with him in the eucharist.

The life that Jesus draws from God and we draw from Jesus is eternal; it is the life of God.

Here and now through our communion with Jesus in the eucharist we can enjoy a first taste of eternal life.

World Meeting of Families

The official opening of the WMOF in the diocese of Ardagh & Clonmacnois will take place in St Mel's Cathedral, on Tuesday August 21st at 7.30pm. This celebration, which includes a solemn evening prayer, is taking place simultaneously in all cathedrals in Ireland.

There is an expectation that each parish will be represented at the ceremony; the parish banners will be carried in procession.

A diocesan led choir will lead the singing of the psalms and hymns.

Longford Marathon

The marathon will be passing through the village and other parts of the parish on Sunday. The leader should be in the village around midday. Watch out for the safety of the athletes who will be passing throughout the afternoon.
